A MANUAL OF THE EXCISE AND DIRECT TAX SYSTEM OF THE UNITED STATES. By the Hon. GEORGE D. BOUTWELL, Late Commissioner of Internal Revenue. This work has been prepared under the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury. It contains all the business and legal forms and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, together with the decisions of the office, carefully annotated.

All the original articles also more than three hundred and fifty rulings by the Commissioner upon practical questions which have arisen in the administration of the law, and extracts from the most forcible decisions of the office.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.

It has been a difficult task to put the contents of this Manual to the service of the events to business men and to members of the legal profession, such authority as it is derived from the laws, rules, and regulations issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, together with the decisions of the office, carefully annotated.

All the original articles also more than three hundred and fifty rulings by the Commissioner upon practical questions which have arisen in the administration of the law, and extracts from the most forcible decisions of the office.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.

It is doubtful if any list of modern works by a single author can surpass in variety, interest, scope, or power that above presented. The volumes are well worth perusal. All orders for them, or any books published by this house, or any other, will be promptly filled, whether for single copies or quantities,

In Press—will be issued immediately—the celebrated "RODREY" DREAM-BOOK, TRANSLATED, CONDENSED, AND ADAPTED TO MODERN USAGE.

THIS IS UNQUESTIONABLY THE LARGEST, MOST PERFECT, COMPREHENSIVE, AND INEXHAUSTIBLE WORK OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD.

It has been compiled from the English, French, German, Persian, Norwegian, Arabic, Turkish, Bengalee, American, Greek, Syrian, and Hindoo, and contains the enormous number of THREE THOUSAND and TEN SOLUTIONS OF 500 DIFFERENT DREAMS!

And is the result of over one year's constant labor of the compiler. The extraordinary number of solutions of dreams renders this book a literary curiosity, and one that will afford the SOLDIER, the SAILOR, and all others, a greater fund of amusement than would a hundred novels. It is utterly impossible to have any sort of dream, the interpretation and meaning of which is not contained in this very curious book. It also embraces the famous Persian "Fisi," whereby these dreams tell their own and each other's fortunes by means of the numbers thrown with three dice. As a source of amusement and instruction, too, this book is unsurpassed.

The work is stereotyped; hence its exceedingly low price—25 cents. Advance orders should be sent in for this work, and for Randolph's "Wonderful Story of Ravatelle," before the 1st of October, as we expect a sale of these two books second only to that of "Les Misérables" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which in the aggregate exceed Two Millions.

Price per copy, 25 cents. Usual discount.

THE AUTHOR'S GAME.

We understand that the sole owners of the copyrights of THE AUTHOR'S GAME, and THE FOOT'S GAME, are the proprietors of the game.

All other editions, and all rights, will be promptly dealt with according to law.

GEORGE A. OLNEY, Stationer, No. 47 Broadway, has been appointed our General Agent for this City, and will fill all orders at our lowest rates.

SAGE, SONS & CO., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE HEPTAMERON.—BY MARGARET, QUEEN OF NAVARRE. Translated from the French by CHARLES D. HORNADAY, M. D., formerly of the Medical College of New-York. Price $1, mailed free. E. WARNER, Publisher, No. 1 Vesey-st., Astor House.

THESE EXQUISITE BOOKS WITH FINE STERLING ENGRAVINGS.—For particulars inquire at the Office of Publication, No. 30 Annex, New-York. CALVIN BLANCHARD keeps this place. It is on the shortest route to Wall-street, to the city, &c. Come and get a Catalogue, and send your order, and we will forward you the books, and forward the remittance of the United States, or can now enjoy THESE EXQUISITE BOOKS at a very moderate price, and less per cent. for postage.

Price covers, 100 pages. 15 cents. Usual discount.

VIL IT ISN'T ALL RIGHT.

Being an answer to, and refutation of, the modern doctrine that, "Whatever is right." The book is an eloquent defense of Marriage, and entitles an appeal for the poor prostitutes against the villainous wife of those who make her what she is. Nothing the language speaks more forcibly for fallen women than this rare pamphlet.

Price covers, 15 cents.
